Gatland's top prize

RUGBY UNION: Warren Gatland has been named UK Coach of the Year and High-Performance Coach of the Year at the UK Coaching Awards 2013.

The Wales head coach, who led the British and Irish Lions to their first series

British and Irish Lions to their first series success in sixteen years earlier this year, was presented with the award at a prestigious ceremony at the Montcalm, Marble Arch.

New Zealand have dominated the International Rugby Board awards with Kieran Read being crowned player of the year. Steve Hansen was voted coach of the year to complete the World Cup holders' clean sweep.
