WANT somewhere unusual to stay? How about: The Hotel Lindenwert in Germany where guests get to sleep in a wine barrel; Jumbo Stay in

Stockholm, where a converted jumbo jet offers double rooms and the cockpit room comes with panoramic views; the Alcatraz Hotel in Kaiserslautern, Germany, where the former prison has cell-style guest rooms with original prison beds, and a bar is enclosed by railings; or the Montcalm London City at The Brewery which is a five star hotel and has butler service which allows you to indulge yourself by selecting your room aroma from their fine assortment of high-quality six senses exotic fragrances for an intimate and relaxing ambiance.
