CV-Library Announced as Only Recruitment Company Shortlisted for UK Private Business Awards 2015

CV-Library Announced as Only Recruitment Company Shortlisted for UK Private Business Awards 2015. CV-Library, the UK's leading independent job board, has confirmed that it has been shortlisted in the UK Private Business Awards 2015, making it the only company in the recruitment sector that has made it to the final stages.

Lee Biggins, founder and managing director of CV-Library, was entered into 'Emerging Entrepreneur of the Year' award and made it into the top four after fending off over 2,000 other nominees across the nation.

The award recognises outstanding entrepreneurship within the UK's leading privately owned businesses and is sponsored by PricewaterhouseCoopers (PWC).

Biggins, says: "I'm humbled to have been shortlisted for such a prestigious UK award. To have made it to the top four and to be the only recruitment business on the entire shortlist is a massive accolade and I'm proud to be named alongside such impressive candidates."

The four finalists in the award category, are: Lee Biggins – CV Library Ltd Imran Akram – Asons Solicitors Ltd Alice Blackie – Pink Boutique Ltd Mike Wilson – Ecosse Subsea Systems Ltd The full shortlist can be viewed at www.privatebusinessawards.com/shortlist. Award winners will be announced on Wednesday 30th September at the Montcalm at the Brewery, in London.
