£3,100

A magical evening has raised £3,000 for a care home in Balham.

Nightingale and Ham-merson care home organisation put on a magic evening for residents on September 29 including magicians Henry Lewis and Peter Scarlett, who put on a spectacular show of tricks and illusions.

Friends, family and residents of the care home were treated to a fish and chip dinner, followed by a performance that included table tricks, card tricks and mind-reading.

There was also a raffle with prizes including £100 Marks and Spencer vouchers and a full spa day at the Montcalm Spa. The evening raised £3,100.
