NEWS IN BRIEF

*WALLENBERG ADDRESS

WESTERN MARBLE Arch Synagogue and the Western Charitable Foundation have announced that, together with the Montcalm Hotel, Westminster City Council has given its approval to the crescent fronting the synagogue and the hotel, currently part of Great Cumberland Place, being renamed 'Wallenberg Place'. The synagogue's new address will be 1 Wallenberg Place. Since the re-opening in May last year of the old King David Suite below the synagogue, now known as the 'Grand Ballroom' at the Montcalm', events and functions have been held at the synagogue, including a Friday night dinner, jointly-held with the Centre for Jewish Life, which was attended by 250 young professionals.
