Return of an icon

omehow it has never seemed right that since 1998 there has been a generation of bar and bat mitzvahs and weddings but not one of them has been at the King David Suite. Until 14 years ago, the King David Suite simcha was as much a part of the furniture of British Jewry as Palwin and — if we say so ourselves — the JC. So hurrah to the Montcalm Hotel, which has managed what no one else has been able to do since 1998 and re-open the iconic King David Suite. The equilibrium of our community is now just that little bit more in balance
