Agency up for three awards

A digital marketing agency in Dartford has been shortlisted for three awards by the UK Recommended Agency Register (RAR). CMA Digital was founded in 2009 by two internet marketing specialists who began providing search engine optimisation consultancy to a handful of business websites. Their pool of clients increased, and the fledgling company began to take shape, taking up offices in Twisleton Court in Priory Hill. Winning nominees will collect their awards during the RAR award ceremony, which takes place at the Montcalm Hotel in London, on June 10.
