

For her For him

ARE YOU BUYING FOR A WOMAN?

Yes
Is she under 35?

Yes
Is she a bit high-mainten... I mean glamorous at all times?

Yes
Does she love designer labels?

Yes
Does she enjoy going out?

Yes
Is she more of a bookworm?

Yes
Is she a dancing-on-tables-till-dawn type?

Yes
Is she more of a bookworm?

Yes
Is she more of a bookworm?

Yes
Is she more of a bookworm?

Still stumped for present ideas? Forget those novelty jumpers and petrol-station panic buys – let our easy-to-follow flow chart find you the perfect gift

Words by Flic Everett

Is she more of a bookworm?

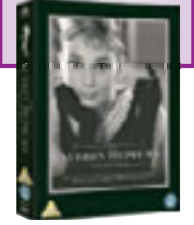

BUY HER THIS:
Letters to Winstanley.com is a fascinating collection of the finest letters ever written. Did she know that the first recorded use of "OMG" was in a letter to Winston Churchill?

BUY HER THIS:
A shimmering, sequined black dress (£24). It goes with anything black and it's amazing under a Christmas tree.

BUY HER THIS:
The Audrey Hepburn Collection (£13.50, Amazon) features every girl's favourite star in her greatest roles. It's sure to cheer up even the gloomiest January.

BUY HER THIS:
A voucher for lunch for two at the five-star Montcalm hotel, London, will give her a warm glow for less than the price of a bad Christmas jumper (£39, www.virginexperience.days.co.uk).

BUY HER THIS:
Bridget Jones's Diary (Amazon) is sure to be a hit – unless she's a fan of a literary type, in which case go for the Goldfinger by Jill Tarter (£9.99).

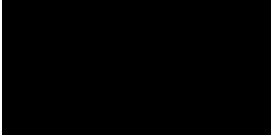

BUY HER THIS:
A PIXI eye alchemy palette (£24, www.beautybay.com). There are so many eye shades, she can have a new one every day.

BUY HER THIS:
NARS Baiser de Feu bold lipstick (£35, Selfridges). It's glamorous, useful and comes from a brand with a make-up label. What's not to love?

BUY HER THIS:
Oatmeal cable finger-less gloves (£22, www.mintvelvet.co.uk). They're cosy and chic, and she can text her thank you without getting frostbite.

ARE YOU BUYING FOR A MAN?

